Marriage Notes for RUSSELL WILES and ANITA COMMON:
MRS. RUSSELL WILES

St. Joseph Catholic Church was the scene of a 9:30 a.m. wedding Saturday in which Miss Anita Kathryn Common, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Common of 1703 East Patterson Street and Russell Wiles, son of Wesley Wiles of R. D. 2, were united in marriage. Rev. Francis Thome, assistant pastor, officiated in the double ring ceremony and Nuptial Mass that followed.

Miss Margaret Conway furnished the accompanying vocal and instrumental program. Greenery formed a background for the candle lighted ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white imported French organdy. It was styled with a portrait neckline in the fitted bodice and an eyelet apron front that was draped with bows in the back that extended into the train. Her veil of nylon net with eyelet trim was worn with her mother's wedding crown decorated in lilies of the valley. Her pearls were a gift of the bridegroom and she carried a prayer book on which rested an orchid showered in satin streamers in which were tied gardenias. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bride placed a special bouquet before the altar of the Virgin Mary.

Miss Colleta Savaiano of Chicago as maid of honor wore pink net over taffeta with a ruffle giving an off the shoulder effect. She carried Johanna Hill roses, and wore a pink cap.

As bridesmaids Miss Marie Rose Camodec of Chicago, cousin of the bride, and Miss Eliza Wiles, sister of the bridegroom, wore matching frocks of blue and yellow, respectively styled with taffeta bodices and marquisette skirts. Their headdresses and bouquets were identical to those of the honors maid's. Cathy Common in pink taffeta and her cousin Dick Common in blue, preceded the bride and carried baskets of flower petals they strewed in her path.

Mark Twain Common, brother of the bride, was the best man while the ushers were Robert Hilker of Atwater and Samuel Augusta of Niles. The bride's mother wore a gray suit with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Breakfast for the bridal party followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Common of East Patterson Street. Garden flowers were the decorations. A reception at 7:30 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents was attended by approximately 100 guests. Out of town relatives were here from Warsaw, Wis., Chicago, Pittsburgh, Niles and Warren. Refreshments served at a flower decorated table, included a tiered wedding cake.

Late in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip with the bride traveling in a gray suit with accessories in green. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles will be at home at 766 south Mahoning Avenue. The former veteran of World War II is employed by AllianceWare, Inc.

Marriage Notes for GENEVIEVE ANDERSON and JEREMIAH SNODE:

Miss Anderson Married In Nuptials Saturday Afternoon

Two vases of white gladiolas in a background of palms and ferns decorated the chancel of the Church of Christ for the 3:30 p.m. wedding Saturday in which Miss Genevieve Ruth Anderson became the bride of Jeremiah Morris Snode. White candles in a double pair of candelabra lighted the setting in which Lawrence J. Gardiner presided.

Members of the Suttin trio furnished the music for the ceremony, including "Through the Years," "Because," "O Promise Me," "Sweeter As The Years Go By," "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding March."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was costumed in a gown styled with a white lace bodice with long pointed sleeves, and a nylon net skirt over satin that extended into a train. It was trimmed in dahlia lace cut out to make appliqued flowers at the base of the nylon yoke. Her finger tipped length veil of nylon net fell from a crown of matching lace trimmed in pearls and she wore a strand of pearls with earrings to match. The bride carried a white Bible on which was an orchid circled in stephanootis and showered in streamers.

Mrs. Edmond Phillips was her sister's matron of honor in a blue floor length frock with matching headdress and a bouquet of yellow roses. Miss Donna Bissett, cousin of the bride and Miss Janice Kay Anderson, sister of the bride, were her bridesmaids. They wore matching dresses of floor length in green and yellow, respectively, with headdresses similar to their frocks and carried Talisman roses in their bouquets.

Linda McGirr was flower girl in a floor length dress of pink with matching headdress.

Reception In Church

Roger Pettit was ring bearer. Walter Gantz served as best man and Herbert Aeling and James Anderson Jr., brother of the bride, were the ushers.

Mrs. Anderson, mother of the bride was costumed in gray with a white daisy design and white accesories. The bridegrooms's mother wore an orchid shade dress with white accessories. their corsages were of glamelias.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the church basement where the refreshment table was centered in three tiered wedding cake encircled in carnations. Candles completed the theme. Mrs. Russell Wiles, Mrs. Elzie Wiles, Mrs. John Bissett and Miss Grace Wiles, aunts of the bride, assisted the guests.

During the evening, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Niagara Falls and into Canada. The bride is traveling in a biege suit with brown and white accessories and her wedding orchids as a corsage. They will be at home in a trailer on R. D. 4.
